The Class of 1955
presents

the Saga

Foreword

*'Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.'*

- Longfellow

THESE lines from Longfellow's A PSALM OF LIFE suggested the theme for the 1955 SAGA. What roads will we choose to follow? After graduation, many untrod paths will lie open for us; many decisions will be made. Even though our footsteps lead us far from our Alma Mater, we shall always remember the valuable lessons which we have learned here.

Our artists have portrayed through photography sometimes humorously, sometimes seriously, various aspects of those two well-used objects--our feet. As seniors, we have become greatly aware of the fact that upon graduation we must assume our privileges and responsibilities as young adults--and stand on our own two feet. This has been our ultimate goal during our past four years at Clarence Central High School.

Dedication

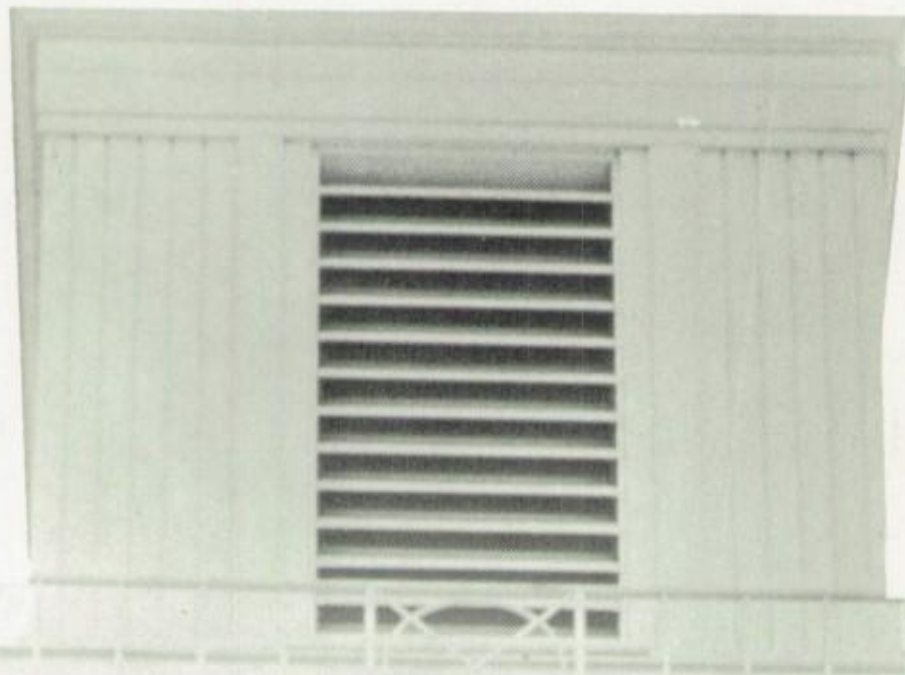

WE, the class of 1955, dedicate the SAGA to our parents and teachers, who have helped guide our footsteps in the right direction.

The challenges we have encountered during our high school days have been met with the confidence of youth and the support of our advisors. They have developed in us a sense of pride in our accomplishments and have helped in molding our characters for the future.

As citizens of tomorrow we shall always be grateful to the ones who have helped us gain a better understanding of the world around us.

Alma Mater

Clarence Central, we all love you
More with every year,
And we'll try to bring you honor
All the time we're here.

Clarence, we'll uphold your standards,
Keep you great and strong;
Then we'll always be victorious
Over all that's wrong.

Chorus:

In the years that lie before us
When we're far apart,
Thoughts of Clarence, like a treasure,
Will enrich each heart.

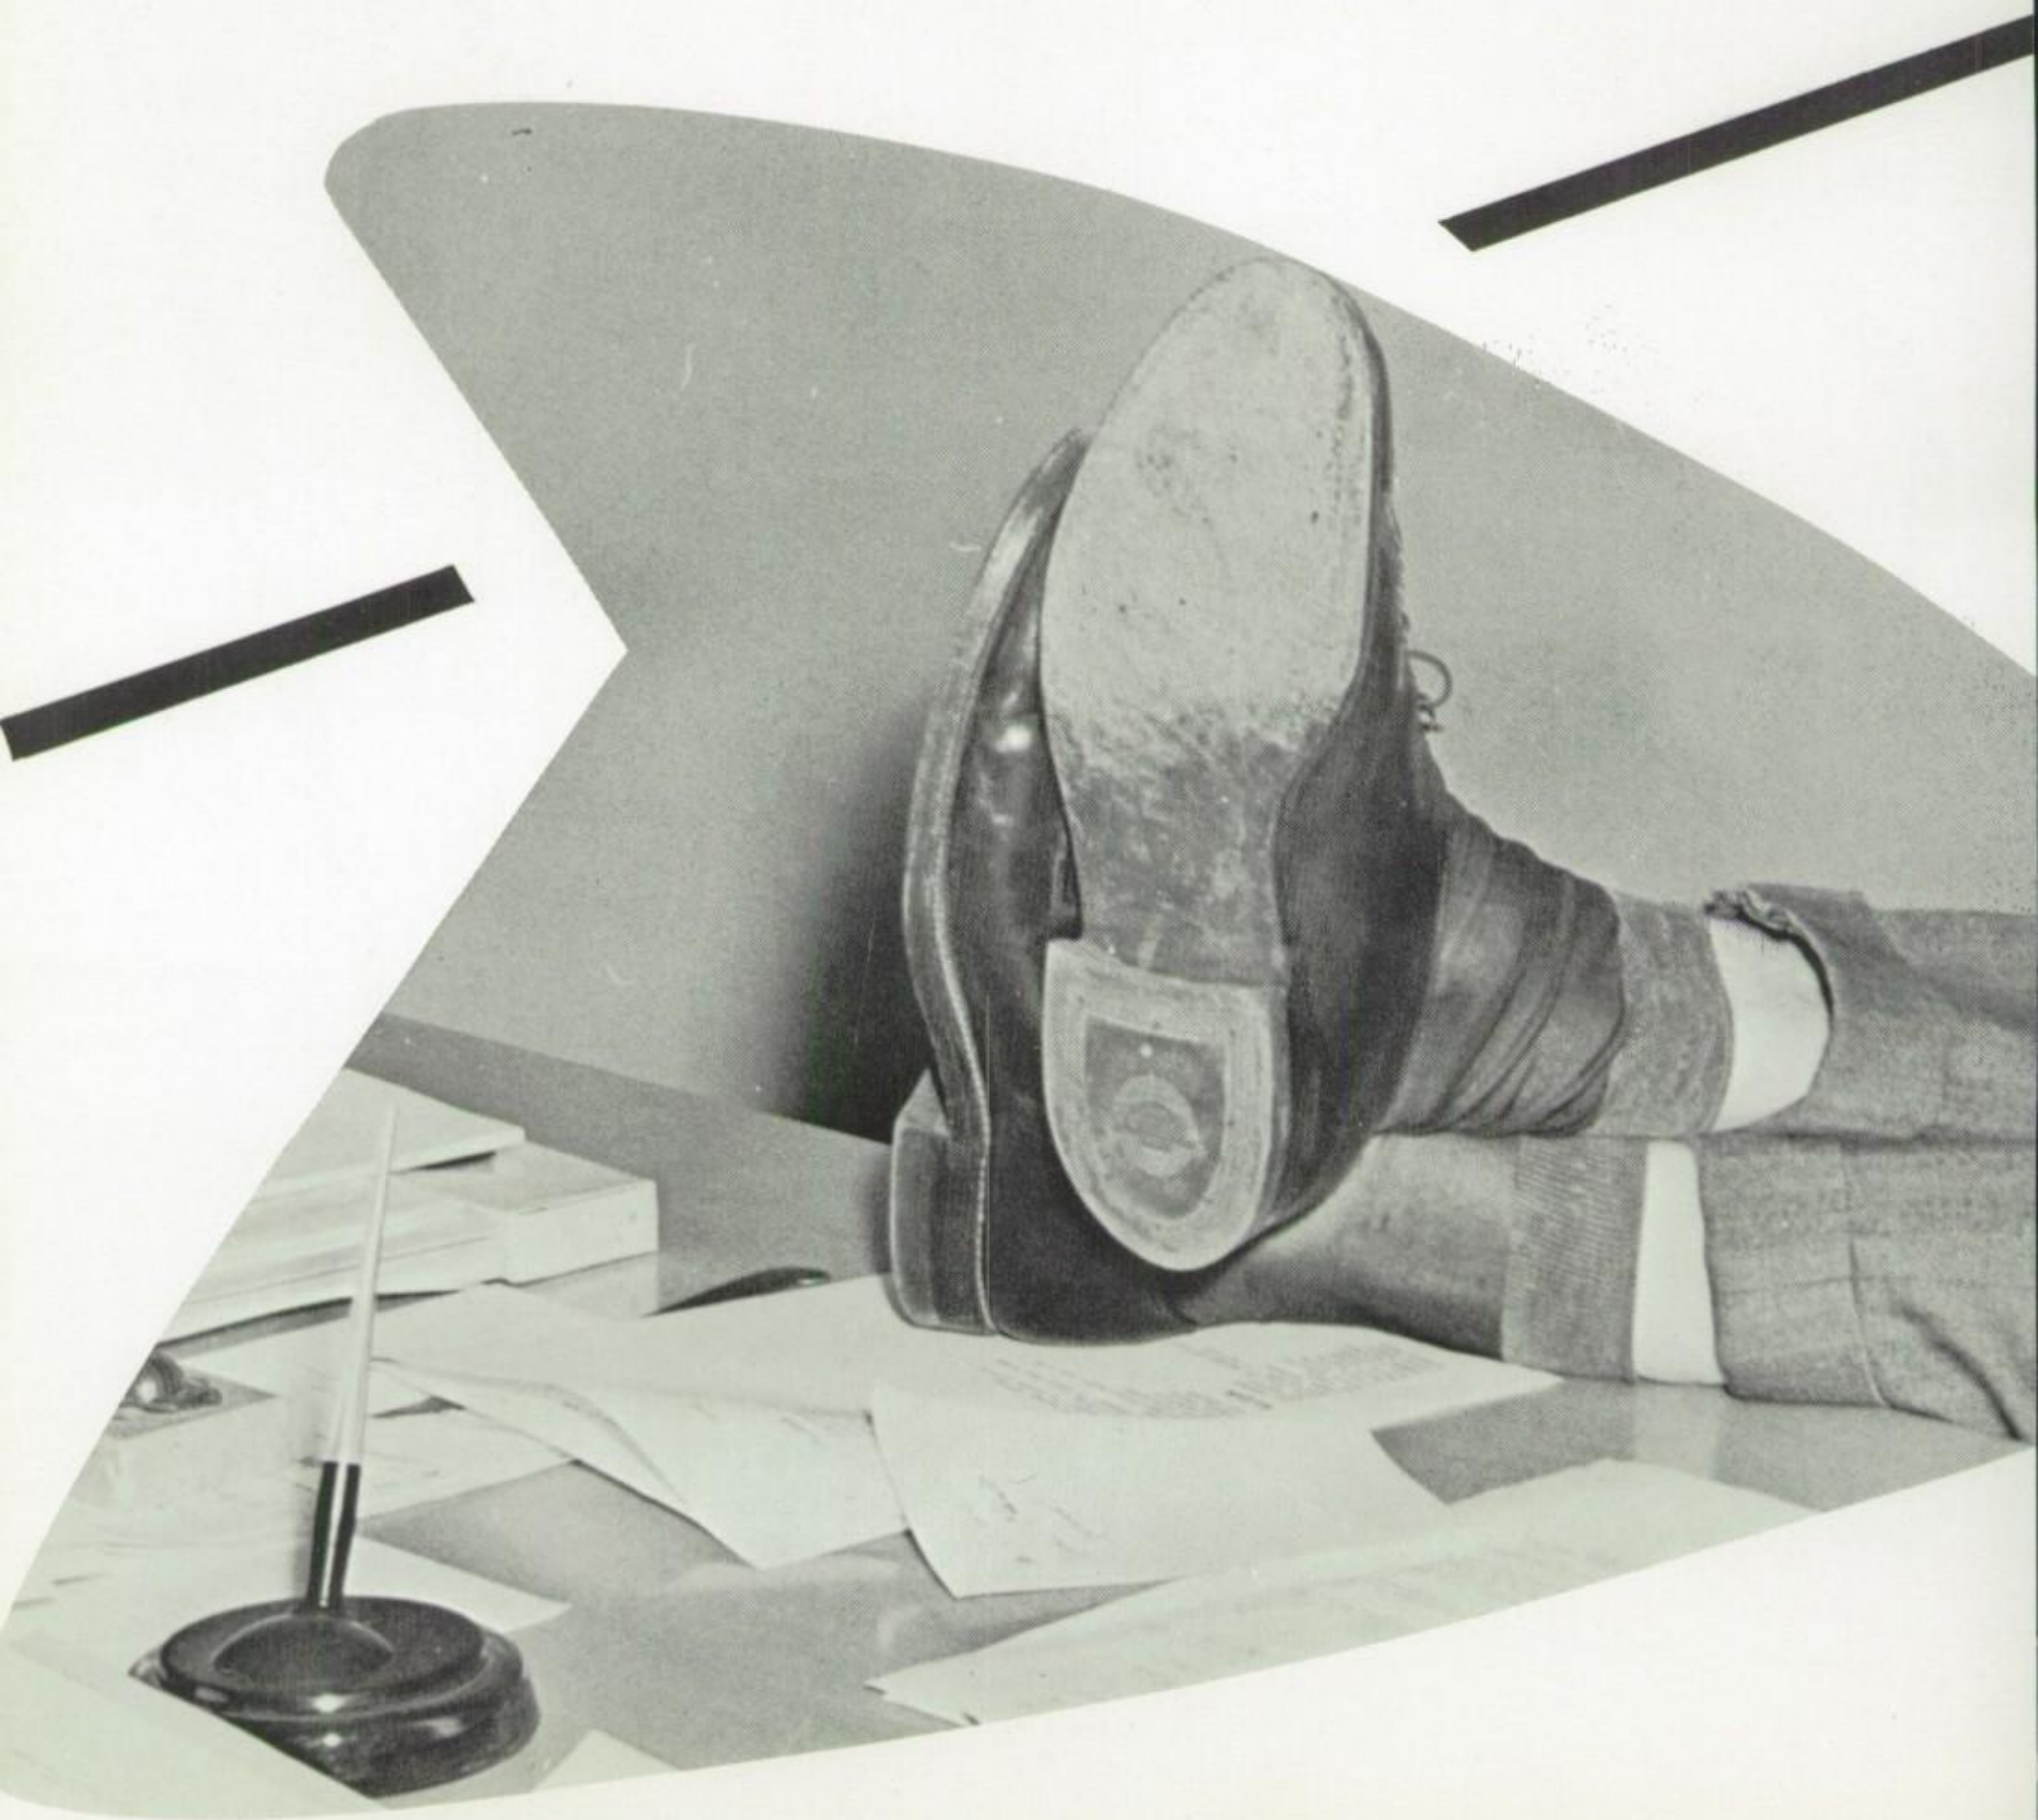

- Alan Cook
Class of '55

In Memoriam

ONE whose footsteps will echo throughout the halls of Clarence Central School for many years is John Groff Pfennig; yet, he was as quiet in his ways as he was determined in his work. Respected for his loyalty and integrity, John won himself friends everywhere. The story we see in his footsteps is one of devotion to his family and to his friends. The class of 1955 has missed John since his untimely death in January, 1953. Thus it is fitting, at a time so precious to our memories as graduation, that we turn our thoughts toward one who might have been among us.

Administration

so a very nice gym teacher if I had in your classes. I wish I could have seen you
I hope you will be back soon.

We are well aware that our school administrators and teachers are far too busy during the day to assume the relaxing pose which is here depicted. It is rather through their tireless efforts and time spent on their feet that the student-body has been able to make progress toward their individual goals.

Administration

WITH always a cheery smile or comment, Dr. Stanley has made us feel at home since our first days at school. His awareness of the ever-changing educational needs of the community together with his foresight and planning have provided us with comfortable and pleasant school surroundings.

AS principal of our school, Dr. Small has devoted much time and effort on our behalf. Not only have we been inspired by his encouragement, but we have made achievement through his assistance and counsel.

ANYONE with a problem or the smallest question knows that Mr. Repp, our guidance counselor, can find time in his busy schedule to give advice. He has helped us solve scholastic problems as well as personal difficulties and has assisted us in making plans for the future.

WE wish to thank our Board of Education for the many long hours which they have spent in planning for our welfare. Through their efforts, the Clarence Central School System has become one of the most outstanding in the State.

Office Staff

AS business manager and clerk of our entire school district, Mr. Kinney has not only spent long hours in determining and filling our school needs, but has shown great capabilities in the financial administration department.

EACH year we come to realize more and more that Mrs. Larkin fills an invaluable spot in the office. We see, not only in business matters, but also with the financial problems that come up as a class works to increase its treasury, that it takes someone like Mrs. Larkin to help out.

MRS. Holmwood, completing her first year here as secretary for Mr. Repp, is filling a new and important place in the guidance office. Miss Gebauer, Mr. Small's secretary, is always willing to offer us her assistance.

TWO more new additions to our office staff this year are Mrs. Johnson at the switchboard, and Mrs. Tilly, Mr. Kinney's secretary. Their willingness to lend a hand has made the office a hub of much activity.

SENIOR ADVISORS: Mr. Robert Stillwell, Mathematics; Mr. George Holden, Band; Mr. Charles Fiegl, Physical Education; Mrs. Margaret Babich, Girls' Physical Education; Miss Alice Oliver, English and Guidance.

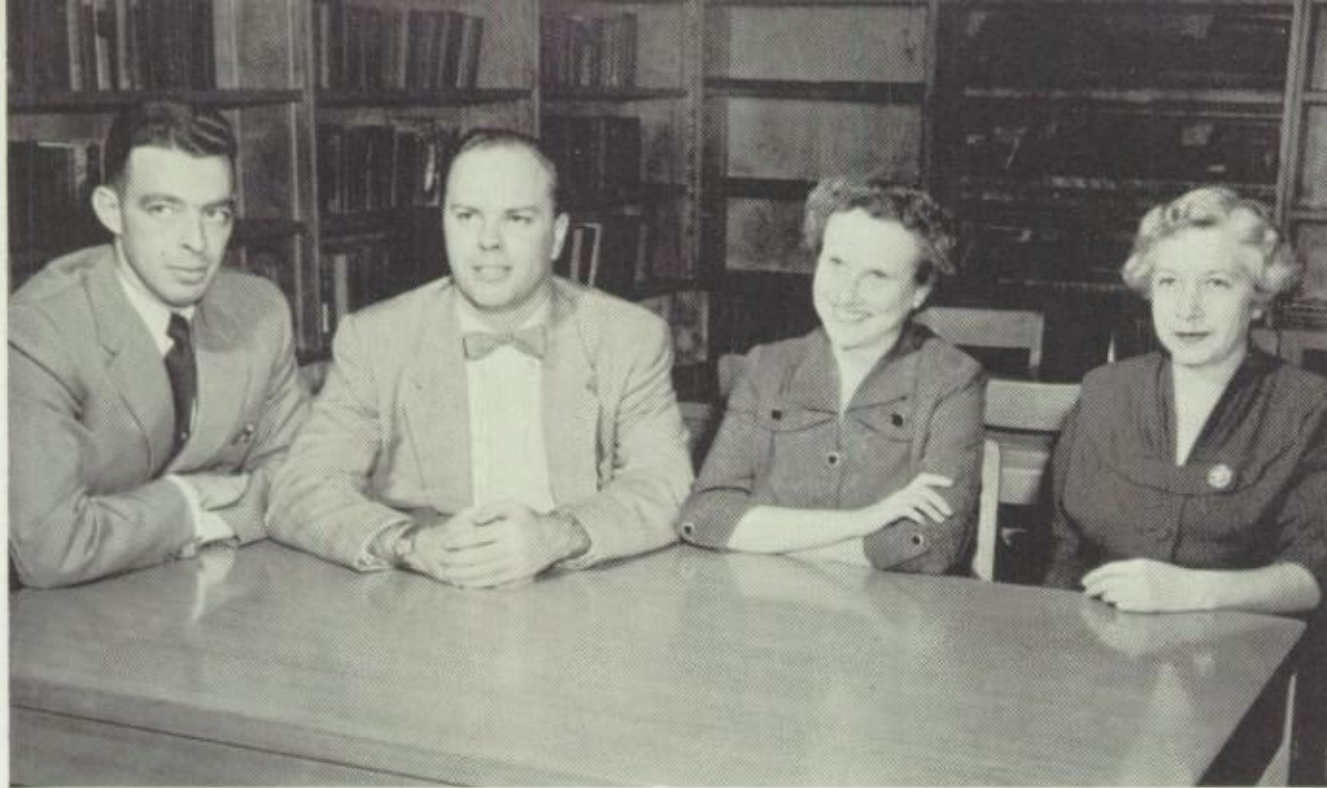

JUNIOR ADVISORS: Mrs. Catherine Taylor, Commercial Subjects; Miss Mary Lou Schlehr, Homemaking; Miss June Ulrich, Foreign Languages; Mr. Arthur Root, Senior High Science.

Faculty

SOPHOMORE ADVISORS: Seated: Mr. Edwin King, Co-ordinator, Industrial Co-operative Education; Mr. John Mozian, Agriculture; Mr. Donald Harter, Art; Mrs. Carolyn Neyerlin, English, Dramatics and Guidance. Standing: Mr. Richard Kaltenbach, Art; Mr. Edward Bernhard, Industrial Arts.

FRESHMAN ADVISORS: Mr. Donald Taylor, 9th Grade Core; Mr. Wesley Scott, Commercial Subjects; Miss Carolyn Cox, 9th Grade Core; Mrs. Kathleen Eshelman, Librarian.

EIGHTH GRADE ADVISORS: Seated: Miss Mildred Schworm, 8th Grade Core; Mr. Joseph Glovack, Junior High Science; Miss Gwendoline Watson, Junior High Mathematics. Standing: Mr. Robert Gardner, Junior High Science and Mathematics; Mr. James Ballard, 8th Grade Core.

SEVENTH GRADE ADVISORS: Seated: Mr. James McDonnell, 7th and 8th Grade Core; Mr. William Wilson, 7th Grade Core; Mrs. Janet Navik, 7th Grade Core; Mr. Barry Bower, Junior High Science and Mathematics. Standing: Mr. George Navik, Junior High Science and Mathematics; Mr. John Bernhard, Boys' Physical Education.

We can certainly thank Mrs. Wood, our school dietitian, for all those wonderful meals throughout the year and especially those extra treats.

We realize that the cafeteria staff has had to put up with a lot of our odd likes and dislikes, but we'll always remember their fine friendliness and co-operation.

Always willing to help anyone or to locate any lost apparatus, Mr. Vasbinder, our chief custodian, performs many services in and around the school building.

Thanks to this group of custodians, we have a clean and shining school of which we are proud.

Service

With Miss McDonald, our school nurse, to comfort us in our many aches and pains and Mrs. Cameron, dental hygienist, to check up on our cavities, how could we help but have a healthy school?

Doctor Fisher, our school doctor, has put in many hours attending to the health and well-being of all the students.

Health

One of the many public health services to our school is the Chest X - Ray Unit provided by the Buffalo and Erie County Tuberculosis Association. Here, the seniors are receiving their annual check-up.

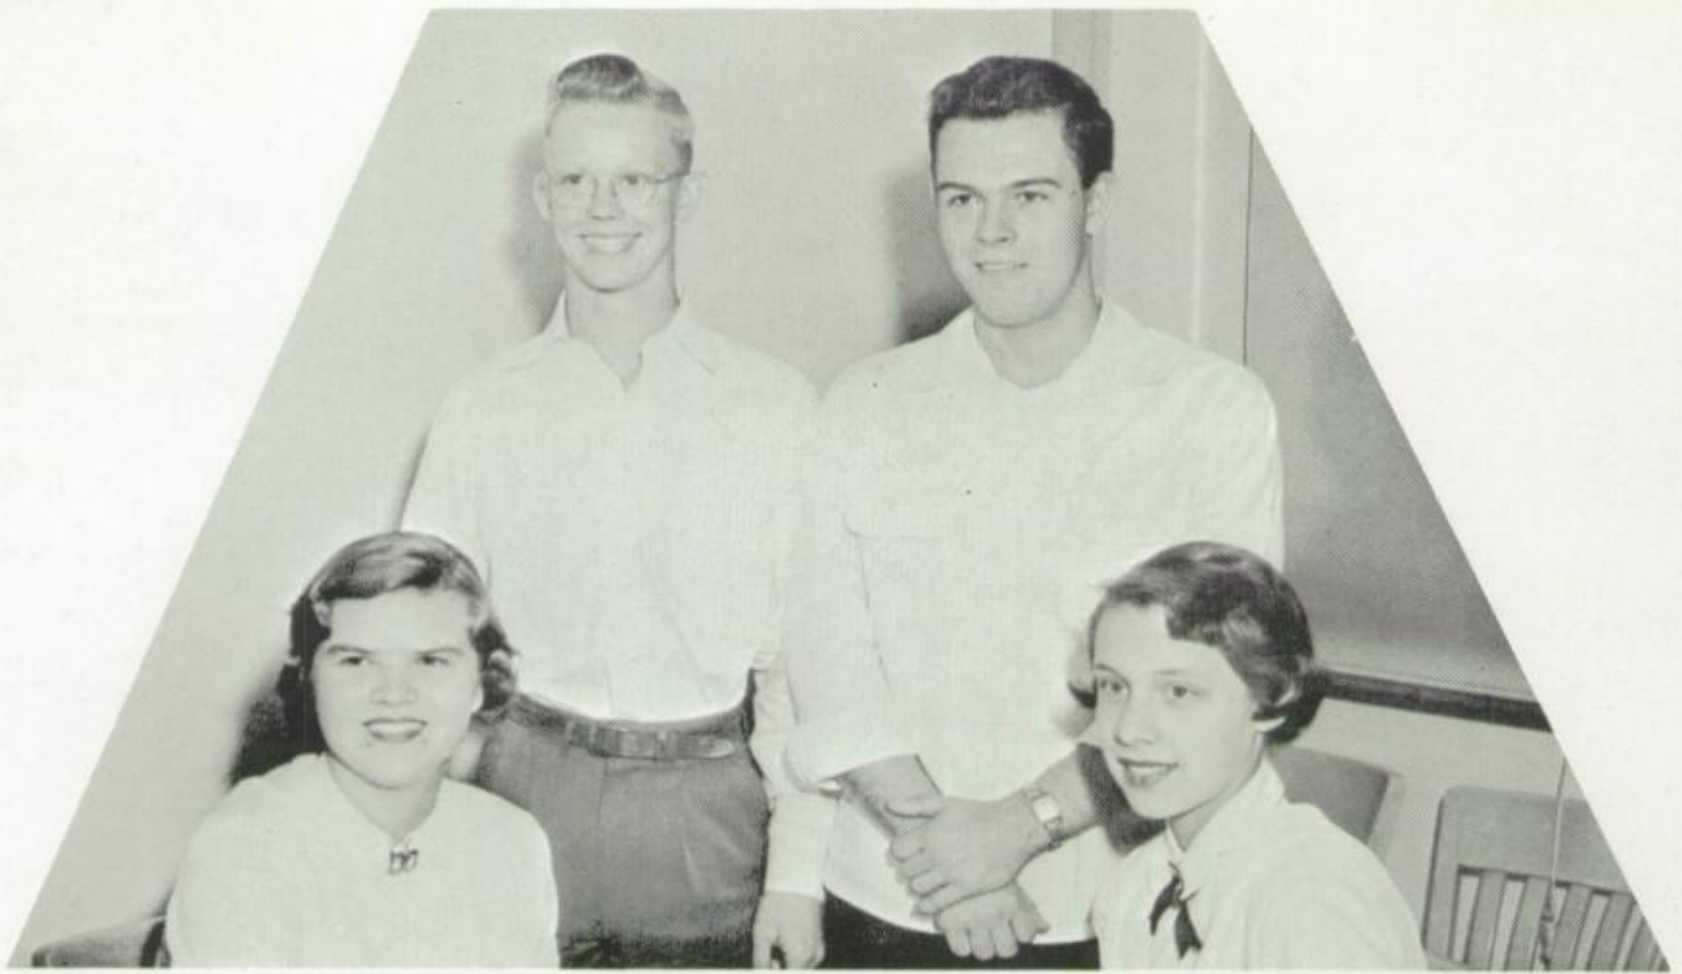

Seniors

After graduation, our feet will travel down many different roads.
It is important that our steps be firm, unwavering and sure; that we gear our pace to our own strides.
Only then will we some day be proud to have others follow in our footsteps.

Seated: Donna Haggard, Aimee Acklen. Standing: David Williams, John Schuler.

WHEN our feet first shuffled down the halls of C.C.S. this fall, we were a bit awed. At last we were seniors! It just didn't seem possible. Under the capable leadership of John Schuler, our class meetings were well organized. Even such learned expressions as "Let's lay that motion on the table," and "I move the previous question" were audible.

We all appreciated the efforts of Dave Williams, our Vice President. He made arrangements for many of our dances and assisted John in carrying on class business. Donna Haggard, the Secretary, was always busy with the various class activities and with writing the minutes of our class meetings. Aimee Acklen had the most exacting job of all, --- accounting for all the money which poured into our treasury.

We seemed to work well together as a class, and had a wonderful time planning our trip to New York. Much of our success was due to the initiative of the class as a whole, and to the excellent guidance which we received from our class advisors: Miss Oliver, Mr. Lynch and Mr. Stillwell. Without the help and encouragement of our class advisors, we could never have accomplished what we did.

Glimpses of an Active Past

EACH year of our memorable past held its highlights. We review some of them here. How proud we were to display our maroon and white colors, when as seventh graders we won the field meet.

Our Senior year has been the busiest year of all. Among our activities was the magazine sale which resulted in $4700 worth of magazines being sold. We also look back upon the many hours spent on the yearbook, and of course, the paper drives--a good excuse to turn hard work into lots of fun.

Saga Staff

OUT for a bigger and better book in '55, our SAGA staff, headed by Editor, Margie Riegle and Assistant Editor, Jean Booker, spent many long hours trying to compile a new and different arrangement of our high school memories. More than once did the five o'clock light burn in Miss Ulrich's room, and had it not been for those Sunday afternoon sessions, many witty ideas would have been omitted. We believe that without Miss Ulrich's help and the co-operation of the entire senior class, our SAGA would not have materialized.

Literary Staff - Seated: M. Grytten, M. Allan, editor; E. Gerich, S. Keller, Standing: E. Schulz, A. Cook, Y. Duroure, M. Stern, M. Erickson.

Art Staff - Seated: M. Olaf, M. Lamb, K. Mack, P. Dads-well. Standing: J. Marcin, D. editor; D. Howe, D. Choate.

Advertising, Subscription, and Typing - Seated: M. Lawson, M. Clare, secretarial manager; N. Castren, R. Kelly, M. Zimmerman, B. Morris, A. Acklen, M. Spurbeck. Standing: A. Kelso, M. Hirtreiter, J. Scrace, S. Messinger, M. Robertson, D. Suckow, M. Hubbard, subscription manager; M. Schneider, Y. Duroure, advertising editor; D. Haggard, J. Vetter, M. Brown.

National Honor Society

EIGHT members of the senior class are charter members of the Clarence Chapter of the National Honor Society. This organization is now in its third year at our school.

Chosen on the basis of scholarship, school service, character, and leadership, this group tries to promote high ideals and standards throughout the school and community.

Each spring new members who best exemplify the aforementioned qualities are selected from the Junior class. These students are tapped at the formal initiation ceremony. This year members of the National Honor Society have attended initiation ceremonies in other high schools. The Clarence Chapter has made plans to meet with the various chapters of the National Honor Society in the area to discuss the purposes of the organization, and what they can accomplish in school life.

Junior Play

UNDER the direction of Mrs. Neyerlin and Joan Ludecker, our 1954 production of JANUARY THAW by Thornton Wilder brought out the hidden talents and dramatic ability of Dick Van Kuren, Sharon Weisser, Toot Spurbeck, Penny Brese and John Frank, not to mention the rest of the cast.

The antics and idiosyncrasies of the Rockwood family amused not only the cast during rehearsals, but the audience on the night of performance.

Seated: R. Van Kuren, S. Weisser. Standing: P. Brese, M. Spurbeck, J. Frank.

Senior Play

COMEDY and excitement ran high when the seniors presented "The Skin of Our Teeth" by Thornton Wilder, in November, '54. The play, directed by Mrs. Neyerlin and student director Fern Ehlers, included a cast of thirty-five.

We'll never forget those rehearsals where Vonny had to act motherly; Gerry had to be eccentric, and Clayt tried to act mean.

Toot, as usual, played the part of the adolescent and Diane became a maid and leading lady, while Marlene turned gypsy for one night.

Seated: M. Spurbeck, G. Klein. Standing: C. Ertel, D. Howe.

Class History

SOMEWHERE along the path to the future, we must stop and retrace our footsteps--- for memory's sake. Since the class of '55 is the first to have completed four years of high school in the new building, we feel that most of our history has been made within its halls. We still remember though, our experiences in the annexes in seventh grade, our triumph over the entire school on Field Day, our eighth grade pencil sales, trips to Fort Niagara and the first exposure to Core.

As Freshmen, we began to get our money-making campaign under way. Under the executive leadership of Alan Cook, full advantage was taken of the new facilities of the school, such as the pool, gym and auditorium. We got rosin in our eyes from our skating party and spent a glorious evening "under the sea" at the Frosh Frolic. We also began to notice athletic potentialities as the fellows made their debut in the local world of sports.

Our class treasury really began to grow as we took the title of Sophomores. We embarked upon the Christmas card business early in the year. This year under the leadership of president Roger Everingham, we produced such successes as a reverse square dance and turned the Parker gym into a French cafe for the Soph Hop. Some of the fellows were on the undefeated J. V. football team, and we soon realized that our class had many athletes. Toward the end of the year, some of the girls participated in the first performance of the water show, and then we were confronted with our first regents exams.

The dawn of our junior year made us feel the importance and prestige of being upperclassmen. A glorious evening of "autumn enchantment" was presided over by their majesties, Queen Mary Ann Spurbek and King John Schuler. This event, our Junior Prom, was a magnificent success. Our play, JANUARY THAW, had "Uncle Jonathan" Van Kuren growing "real-live" pigs and Alan Cook playing hero to Donnie Choate. Together with the rest of the cast, the play proved to be a laughable and profitable venture. Toward the end of this year, many of our classmates were given various honors. Jackie Smith, Diane Howe, John Schuler, and Roger Everingham represented our school at the Syracuse Citizenship Conference along with four seniors. Kathy Mack, Mickey Stern, Alan Cook, John Frank and Diane Howe were members of a model U. N. at Buffalo. Pete Rhodes and Liz Allan represented our school at Empire Boys' and Girls' State.

Suddenly, our biggest and last year was upon us. With John Schuler as our re-elected president, we forged ahead immediately, because with our class size and goals, a large treasury was imperative.

We thought other years had been busy, but this year topped them all. Our senior play, THE SKIN OF OUR TEETH, directed by Mrs. Neyerlin, and our magazine sale both were tremendous successes. Our magazine sale broke the record in gross and net profit, with the prize for top salesman going to Mike Stern.

In the world of sports, seven of our men obtained gold footballs for an undefeated season, while our basketball players did nearly as well.

Our Christmas dance, a memorable evening in "Winter Wonderland," was a profitable experiment and it provided enjoyment for all who attended. After mid-year exams, we returned to the thought of making more money to finance our class trip to New York City. When the great occasion had come and gone, we knew that our great expectations had been fulfilled.

Now, as we come to the long awaited time of graduation, the fact that we shall soon be drifting apart comes to our minds, and we know that we shall miss this school and all our friends.

As we go forth to make new footprints on the sands of time, we look forward to a bright future which has been preceded by many happy moments.

Class Will

SINCE the class of '55 is leaving C.C.S. forever, it is only fitting and proper for each member to state what he is leaving behind, and for whom.

Liz Allan is leaving her pencil and typewriter for next year's literary editor of the yearbook. Ellen Barnes leaves her Cupid's arrows to anyone who can make use of them. Jean Booker is leaving her blush to anybody with a pale complexion, while the harmony girls, Marilyn Schneider, Dianne Koepcke, Carol Buchholz, Chucky Byler, and Mary Clare leave their singing ability to next year's 5A gym class. Carole Carlson leaves her lovely tea parties to anyone who has Miss Watson for algebra. Doug Crittenden, an ambitious young man, leaves nothing for anybody who wants it, and Tom Green leaves his Plymouth to the same person. Dick Hake leaves his parking space to any Junior Hot Rod. Miriam Klingler leaves her long eyelashes to anybody who needs them. Marcia Lamb has an if-clause in her will. She leaves her seat in typing class to any Junior, but only if that person can do Mr. Scott's 3 minute tests without any mistakes. Jimbo Leighton leaves the girls to any incoming Senior boy. Line up, fellows! A Junior gets Tom Parkinson's seat on the bus, but only if he is deserving. Margie Riegle leaves the history quizzes to the Juniors, and they can have them, too! Sharon Weisser leaves her planters' warts to anybody wanting to get excused from swimming. Aimée Acklen gives her southern accent to Arnie Dueppengeisser, and Carolyn Brauen leaves yodeling in the swimming tunnel to Diane Baker. Mr. Lynch is acknowledged in several wills. He gets Dick Megerle's toupe, Joan Winter's ballet slippers, and Mary Brown's driving ability. Dave Maybach leaves his curly hair to Mr. Stillwell, and Jackie Smith leaves her despised nickname to Mr. Repp in hopes that he will keep it to himself. Marilyn Weber gets Pat Dads-well's natural blonde hair and freckles, all Marilyn Erickson's problems and Evie Gerich's good times with Jim Goodman. Gerry Klein leaves his sense of humor and wavy hair to Morris Kirchoff, and Morris also gets Don Glor's art originality. John Schuler leaves Don Long his record for safe driving, and Nancy Castren leaves Don her job at the Clarence Drug Store in hopes that he can wash the dishes cleaner.

Vonny Durore leaves her "Bermuda" gym suit to Bren Carter, and Clayt Ertel leaves his ability to flirt to Eugene Smith, while Donna Haggard and Janet Vetter leave their seats on the bus to Marion Frank and Judy Anderson. Al Cook leaves the basketball court in his barn to next year's varsity, and Marlene Grytten gives her cheerleading ability to Ernie Fix. Mary Jane Hirtreiter leaves her swimming ability to Barbara Lex, while David Williams leaves his to Whitey Leland. Roger Everingham leaves the juke box to Ron Gregor; Sue Keller leaves her height to Jeanette Jacobs, and Bob Kelly leaves his gold key chain to Jack Kelly. Mary Ann Lawson won't need her swimming excuses any more and leaves them to Joyce Roneker and Audrey Cummings. Kathy Mack leaves her bottle of peroxide to Nortrud Niehuss, and Naomi Mast leaves the milk counter to Norman Brauen. Vicky McCallum leaves her sinking ship to a Junior cheerleader whom she doesn't name. Sylvia Messinger leaves her membership in Girls' Leaders to Connie Stark; Beverly Morris leaves her suede shoes to Dan Hamann, and Miss Schlehr is the beneficiary of Pat Moulin's sewing ability. John Voss leaves his toothbrush to the nurse. Martha Hubbard leaves her old baton to Pat Downey, and Bob Murray leaves the girls to Lowell Weiler. Harry Pankow leaves the dinner tables to Bob Bergman, and Marg Robertson leaves her muscles to J.G.A.A.B. (as if he needed them.)

Erna Schulz gives her diving ability to Bucky Walters; Madonna Schwarz leaves her jokes to Virginia Wilkerson; Jane Scrace leaves her freckles to Penny Williams, and Pat Shaffer leaves her horse to Mike Zimmer, "the crazy cowboy." Toot Spurbeck leaves her height to Bill Long, and Mickey Stern leaves his vector loglog hyperbolic model 4-t slide to Bill Gerich, in vain hope. Dave Suckow gives his big ears to Pete Wolf, and Dick Van Kuren leaves his dislike of a certain thing around C.C.S. to his brother, Wes. Jim Weseman gives his Ag. marks to Charlie Kelkenberg; John Wolfe gives his big nose to Charles Tagliarino; Marlene Zimmerman leaves her self-confidence to Ann Weseman, and Dick Stanley gives his history marks to John Stein.

Activities

Those high-heeled slippers and polished shoes are definite signs that there is an important social event taking place. Perhaps it is a dance, a play or an operetta. Whatever the reason, we find it fun to put aside our grimy loafers and saddle shoes for a special occasion.

Student Council

UNDER the executive leadership of President Mary Ann Spurbeck, our representative, law-making body tries to iron out some of the wrinkles in the average student's day.

Among the many projects started by our council are the presentation of Honor Medals, purchase of a school juke-box, the annual Field Meet, inter class swimming meets and "voting machine" elections.

With Mr. Repp's guidance, our council is working hand-in-hand with the administration for the betterment of student life.

Honor

Legion

THIS red-sweater brigade of C.C.S. may be seen firmly established at various posts between every class. We must admit that they have the complete respect of everyone as they help the hall traffic to flow smoothly. Besides being ready and eager to help any visitor or fellow classmate, the members of this monitor system offer their services to the school at all times.

KEEPING in step on every occasion, our school band played at all the games and assemblies. Under the direction of their new instructor, Mr. Holden, the band has proved successful in its marching finesse and tuneful interpretations of our school songs. We realize such results involved long hours of practice and we want the band to know how much the whole student-body appreciated their faithfulness. The majorettes, comparatively new to our marching band, added rhythm and charm to many games and special events.

THE Varsity Glee Club forms the musical nucleus of many of our operettas and entertainments. Their well-blended voices and the variety of their repertoire is a source of much pride for the entire student body. This year the group presented the musical comedy, BLOOMER GIRL by Arlen and Harburg.

Varsity Glee Club

THE Junior Glee Club, consisting of 110 students, under the direction of Mr. McDonnell, has presented us with musical splendor in our Christmas and Easter assemblies.

Their activities include attending evening pop concerts at Kleinhans Music Hall and a picnic in the spring. They are planning to enter the Fredonia Choral Competitions of New York State.

FFA.

THE Future Farmers of America is a group under the leadership of Mr. Mozian, which, along with social activities, aims toward the development of agricultural leadership, co-operation and citizenship.

F.H.A.

THE Future Homemakers of America under the direction of Miss Schlehr is a national organization on high school terms. Our group here at C. C. S. becomes active through fashion shows, food sales, banquets, giving gifts to charity, and co-operative FFA-FHA parties.

Historical Club

HOW much do you know about your own home town? This junior high group is having a great time digging up relics of the past in the ruins of Clarence. "Clarence in Fact and Legend" is their theme and Miss Schworm and her young historians have fun while learning about their community.

Bible Club

THERE are eight members in this club eager to learn more about the BIBLE. The group also does missionary work and sends packages a-broad. The most appreciated services of this club are that of giving the morning prayer and the Scripture and prayer in assembly.

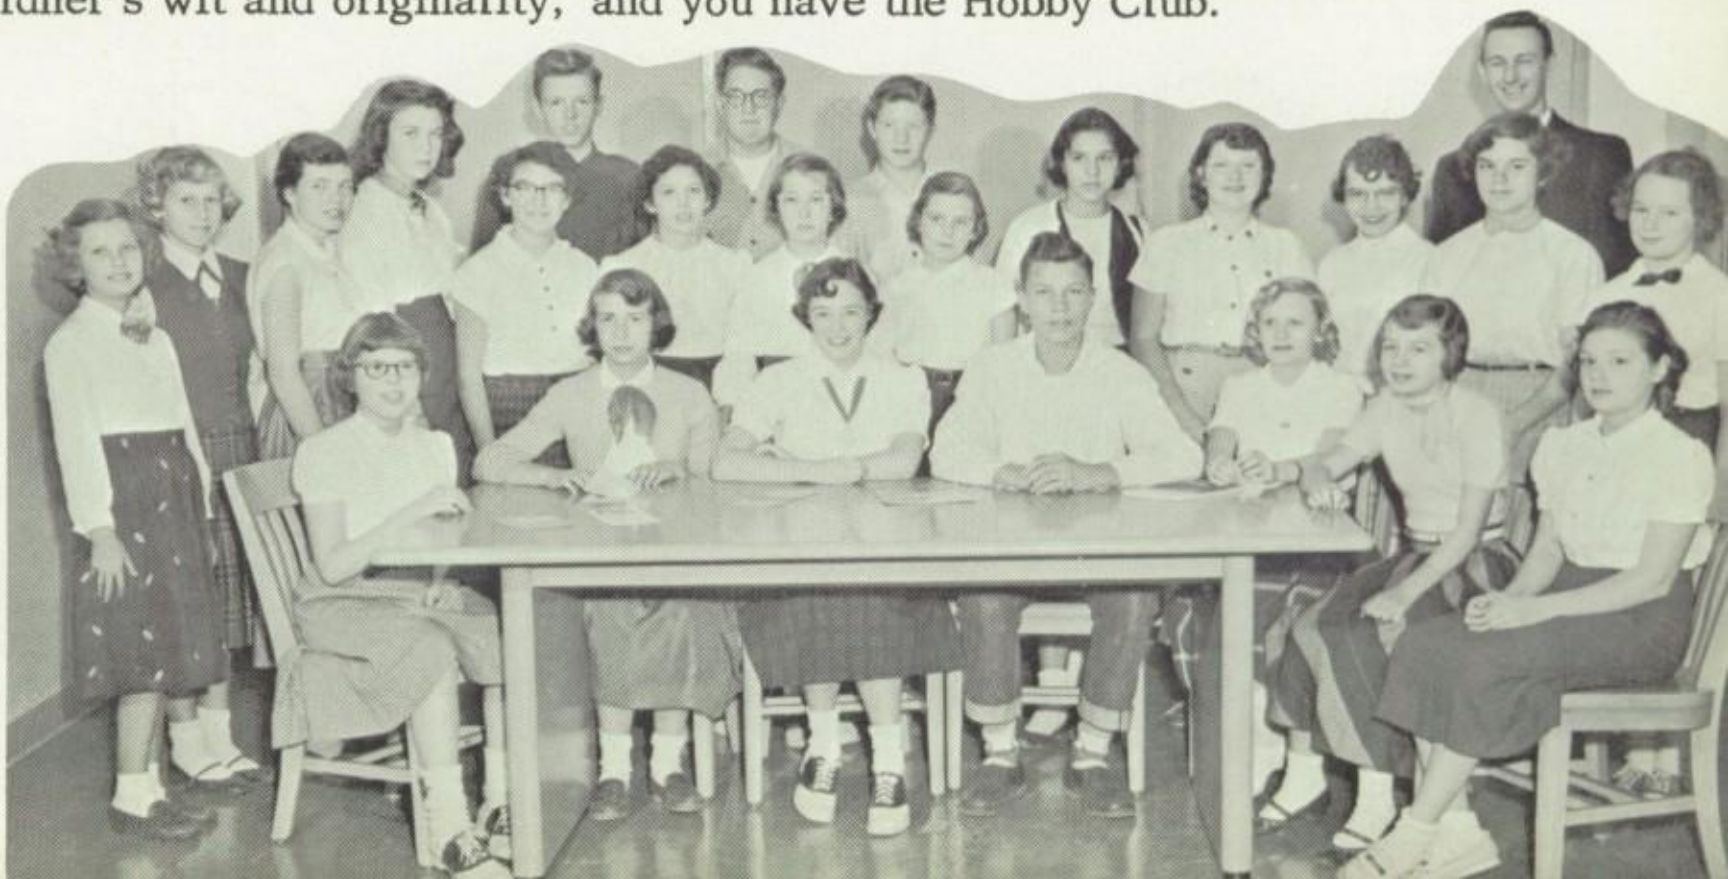

Crafts Club

THIS organization gives art majors a chance to further their creative brainstorm outside of class. Many young "Rembrandts" turn out fine paintings and some might mold pottery or design and cut jewelry. Under the supervision of Mr. Kaltenbach, all brushes, scissors, and pens are busy in creative art.

Hobby Club

AN attempt to combine outside interest and school atmosphere has brought together many collectors and their "items" in one enjoyable seventh period per week. Major interest areas include photography, records, animals, dancing, and movie stars. Add a touch of Mr. Gardner's wit and originality, and you have the Hobby Club.

Printing Club

AS the printing machines whir in the shop, we find club members organizing types and headings and arranging various layouts under the direction of Mr. King. Some fruits of their efforts include letter-head stationery, personalized Christmas cards, calling cards, and printed tickets.

Foreign Correspondence

MEMBERS of the club secure names of foreign pen pals and carry on an active correspondence throughout the year. The group makes studies of countries concerned in their writing and also puts on skits in their meetings. During the meetings the girls read the letters and show souvenirs and cards which they have received.

Foreign Language

AN inexpensive and interesting tour of Europe can be taken right from Miss Ulrich's room, during a meeting of the Language Club. Junior High girls spend a semester studying both French and Latin. With "Bonjour" to France and "Vale" to old Rome, we get a taste of high school language study.

Shop

Improvement

SHOP Improvement Club offers a fine chance to carry on outside-of-class projects. Operating on a rotation system, different industrial arts majors work in the shop at certain times during the year. They work on cabinets, benches, improvement projects, and teaching aids, and through the term help provide better facilities and atmosphere in the shop.

Sportsmen

THE great outdoors becomes a second home, and through Mr. Wilson's direction we make this home a safe and well-known place. Experience comes in practice of safety methods, tying flies and making plugs. Knowledge comes through films, practice of good conservation methods, and safety drills.

Model Club

Under the supervision and guidance of Mr. Ballard, some members even design their own projects. Co-operation is learned, experience gained and everyone has lots of fun.

WE don't mean to disillusion you, but the models are boats, planes, cars, and machines.

Photography Club

A GROUP of more ambitious "shutter-snap-pers" under the direction of Mr. Harter soon learns how to operate the enlarger, various cameras, and printers. By adding an artistic touch and special lighting, great results in black and white are obtained.

Science Club

GOING off on a tangent from the run-of-the-mill science class, this group works toward lab improvement and experimental organization. At times, members of the club may be seen roaming the swamps back of the school on biological field trips. Some highlights of the group include field trips to the Science Museum, occasional film strips, and the performance of original experiments.

Stamp Club

KEEP an eye open for any odd stamp, because Mr. Scott has taught the club members that their hobby may prove a profitable experience. Organizations such as this club help interested hobbyists to enlarge their collections and to follow important events through the use of stamps and stamp publications.

Scholarship Club

A LITTLE extra ambition, effort and time contributed by these seniors may result in a helpful scholarship to speed them on their way to college. Under the direction of Miss Oliver, and with the help of other faculty members, the group prepares for those long, tedious college board and scholarship exams.

Jr. High Chess Club

THE seventh, eighth and ninth grade boys, under the leadership of Mr. Mozian, make up the Chess Club. The object of the club is to learn new moves and plays and also to instruct beginners. There is a chess tournament which lasts all year. The winners of the tournament receives prizes and the finalists play for a trophy.

Sr. High Chess Club

THE senior high Chess Club, under the competent direction of Mr. Root, is an informal gathering of beginners and experienced players who arrange tournaments, teams and partnerships. Because of this organization, we seem to notice a great many more intellectuals roaming the halls of C.C.S.

Knitting Club

KNIT one, purl two! As knitting needles click, colorful items are produced in Knitting Club. Under the guidance and advice of Miss Cox, club members select various projects to knit, and display them after completion. Such an organization helps promote skills and hobbies.

Dramatics Club

DRAMA TICS Club encourages students to display their talent in pantomimes and plays. By creating entertainment for the student body, acting techniques are learned by all. Led by dramatist, Mrs. Neyerlin, what could be better?

Dig the hair.

Stage Crew

TRY and name some C.C.S. stage productions that would have been a success without the stage crew. This is an invaluable group which learns the ropes of backstage work, techniques of lighting, scenery, and stage management. The extra time that the crew spends backstage is appreciated by everyone.

Athletics

In the performance of many sports, athletes need to cultivate quickness of movement and nimbleness of foot. Nearly all sports have a particular type of shoe by which they may be identified. We have selected the football shoe and the sneaker to represent athletic activities.

OUR congratulations to Coach Bernhard on another victorious football season. Not only has Coach Bernhard supported the team but Mrs. Bernhard has encouraged all of us in many ways. Everyone, from this year's seventh graders to the C.C.S. alumni, knows that generosity and whole-hearted enthusiasm cannot be found stronger anywhere than in the hearts of Coach and Mrs. Bernhard.

If you've ever been short of change for a hot dog, needed a ride home, lost your ticket or had any little personal problem, you know that the Bernhards are always ready to give a helping hand. Mrs. Bernhard and her "give'em the 'ole pepper, boys," has given many a team that extra spark to go on.

We can certainly be proud of this pair and know that many years after our graduation we will still remember them.

Football

WE are justly proud of our trophies which symbolize not only hard won victories but also good sportsmanship.

The Varsity

THE varsity football team, with the coaching of Mr. Bernhard, finished as an undefeated team in the 1954 season with six wins and a tie.

The first game with Alden had a victorious score of 32-0. Everyone put forth tremendous effort in getting a successful season under way, including Bob Nelson, who has been hospitalized the majority of the first semester with an eye injury.

Each game following the first was another proof of how excellent a team we had. The second victory with Sloan (26-6) was followed by touchdown triumph with Cleveland Hill (27-0) and Eden (39-0).

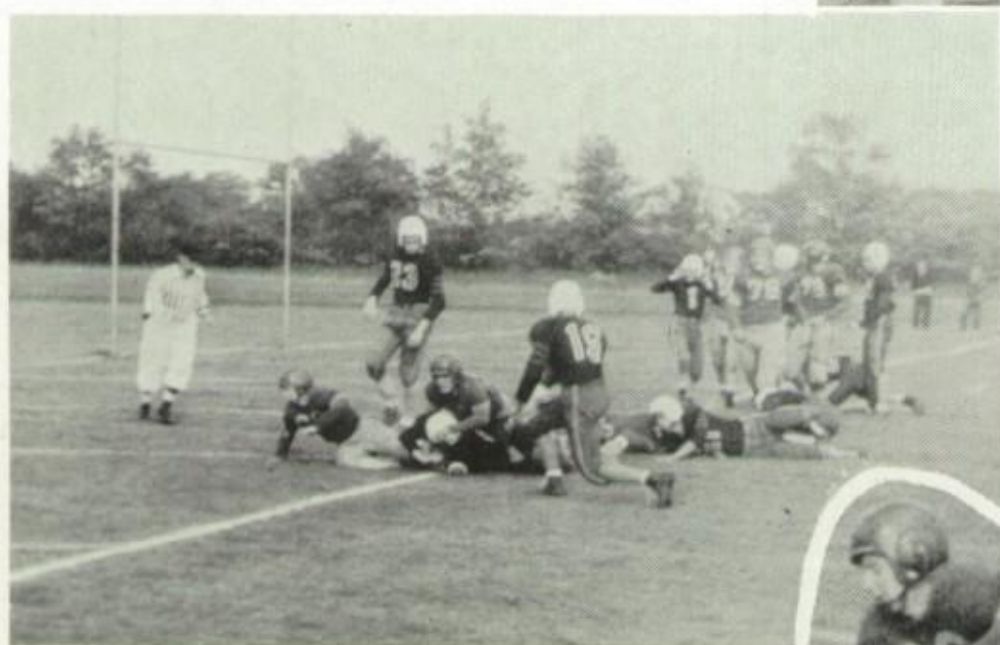

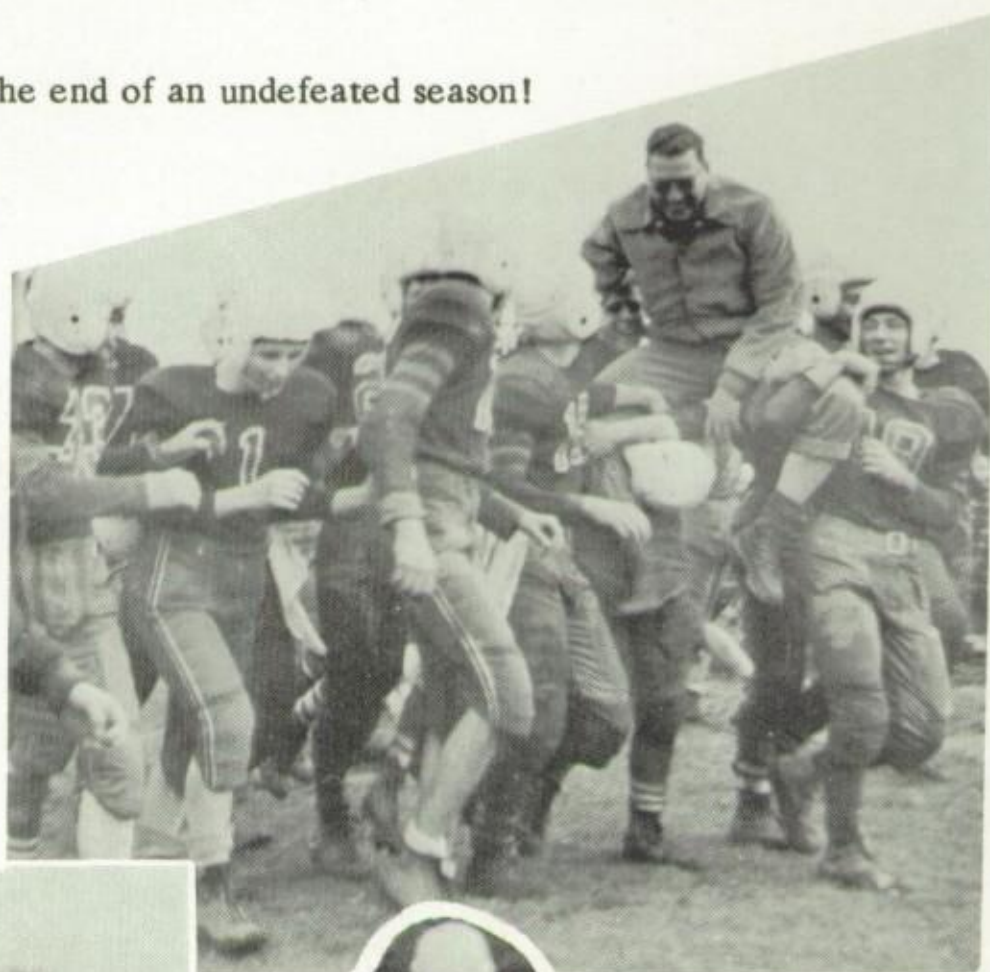

In the biggest game of the year, the team showed great defensive work in tying Springville (6-6). With the Maryvale game (28-6) and the bout with Pine Hill (30-6), Coach Lefty Bernhard and his red devils wound up another undefeated season for C.C.S.

The end of an undefeated season!

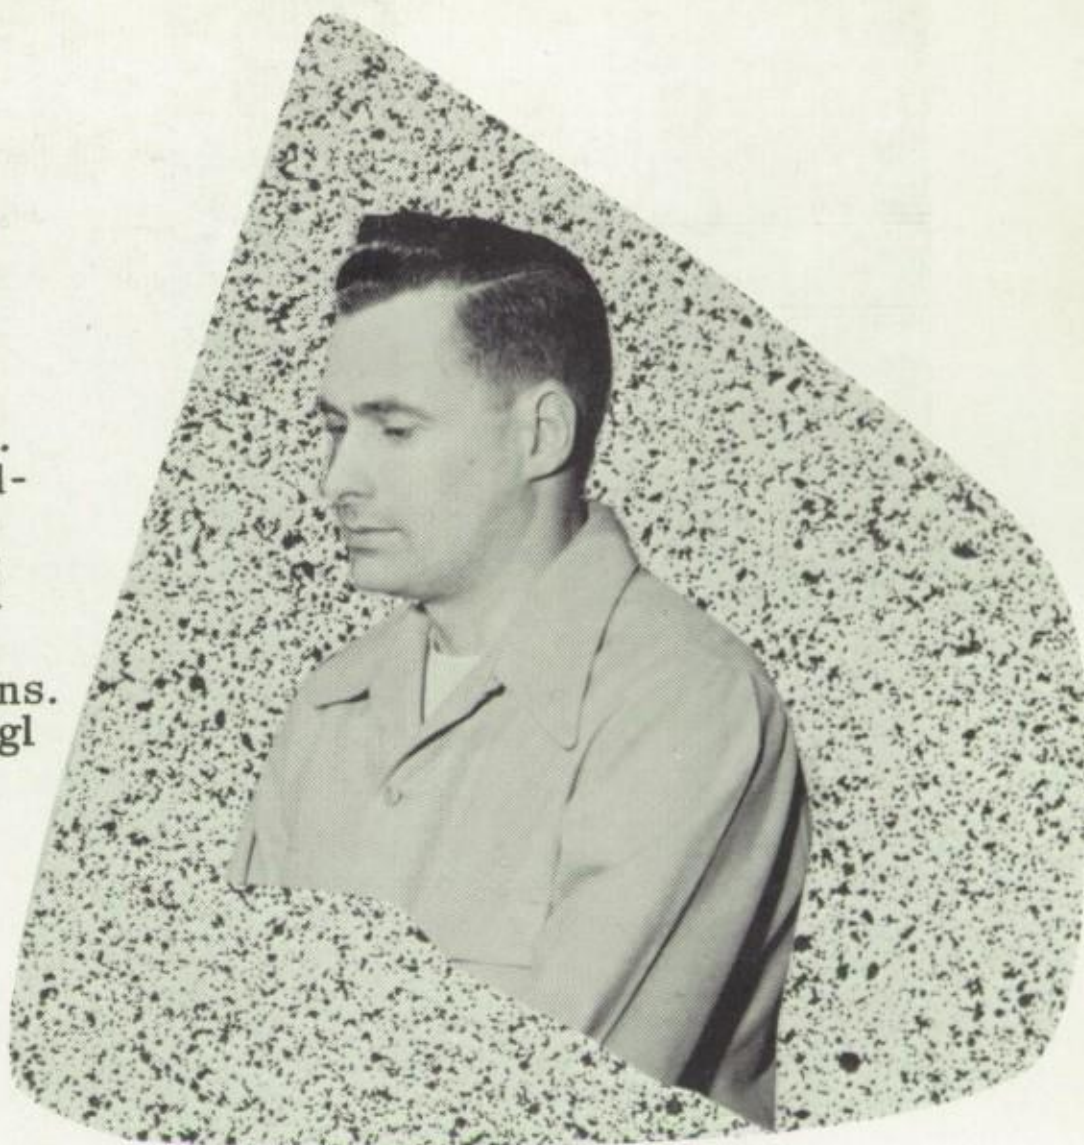

We want a touchdown!

Close up of Varsity in action.

WE are extremely fortunate, we feel, to have another pair of great sport enthusiasts behind our student body. Coach Fiegl has led our teams on to many victories and has helped them also over the rough spots. His conscientious and helpful manner has aided many a flustered upperclassman. We remember too, Mrs. Fiegl's attendance at nearly all the games, with the family playing the part of the cheering section, and also her display of musical talent at the organ and her assistance in many of our musical productions.

Thanks again, Coach and Mrs. Fiegl for all you have done.

Junior Varsity

UNDER the able leadership of Coach Fiegl, the J. V. football squad, composed mainly of freshmen, continued the fine record of last year's team. Special recognition is due to Captain Ron Fischer, John Roneker, Hank Boies, and Jack Kelly, who did a terrific job. Amid rain, sleet, and snow the J. V. team played its final game with an unexpected defeat of Maryvale, 7-0. Let's hope for more of the same, next year.

Varsity Basketball

COMPOSED of four veteran seniors, and the previous year's Junior Varsity, plus some newcomers, Coach Fiegl's Varsity team this year entered a new league with great expectations. We managed to prove the old proverb, "Practice makes perfect," or at least great improvement, as the season wore on. Highlights: Our defeat of North Collins by 53 points, and of Eden by 31 points. The student body is very proud of this year's team because of their fine record and spirit throughout the season.

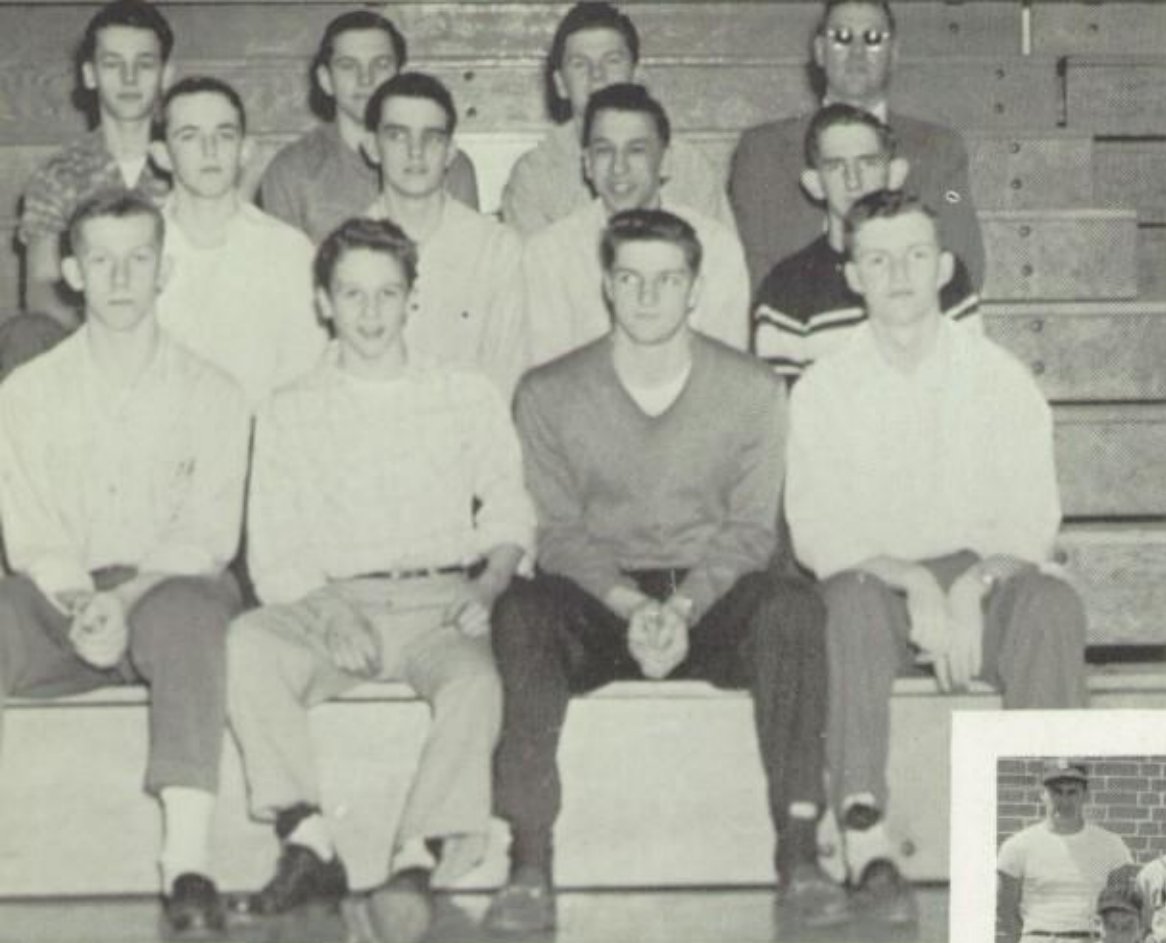

ROW 1: B. Grytten, D. Smith, J. Ronecker, P. Reidl, B. Simonin, D. Drury, D. Webster. ROW 2: C. Taglerino, R. Billings, R. O'Leary, D. Smith, R. Appleby, W. Bohm, E. Smith.

J.V. Basketball

WITH the aid of newcomer, Coach Bower, the Junior Varsity team had a good record this year. The squad was composed of freshmen, with a few veterans of last year. Although this was one of the youngest J. V. teams in our history, it improved rapidly, and at the season's end we noticed that much skill had been developed.

WITH many new members joining the J. V. squad, plus, last year's veterans and Mr. Fiegl's coaching, any prediction for this year's season ought to be favorable.

ROW 1: G. Williams, B. Norris, W. Leland.
ROW 2: R. O'Leary, N. Wachowiak, D. Smith, J. Kelly, D. Hecht, W. Helms, R. Gregor.
ROW 3: C. Fiegl, W. Sukman, R. Grytten, D. Hahn, R. Sherman, J. Roneker, M. Burkhardt, D. Bergman.

ROW 1: D. Hecht, W. Price, J. Stein, R. Sherman.
ROW 2: T. Smith, F. Maddock, A. Sukman, J. Roneker.
ROW 3: R. Fischer, W. Helms, N. Wachowiak, Coach Bernhard.

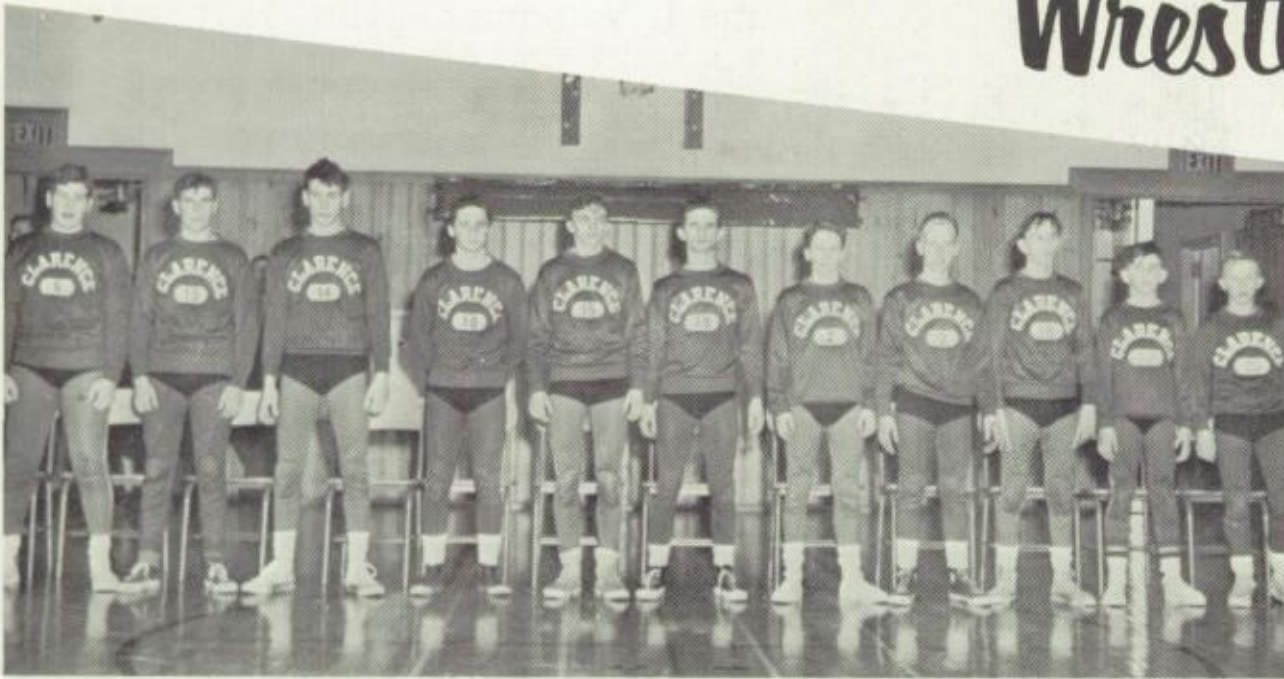

Baseball

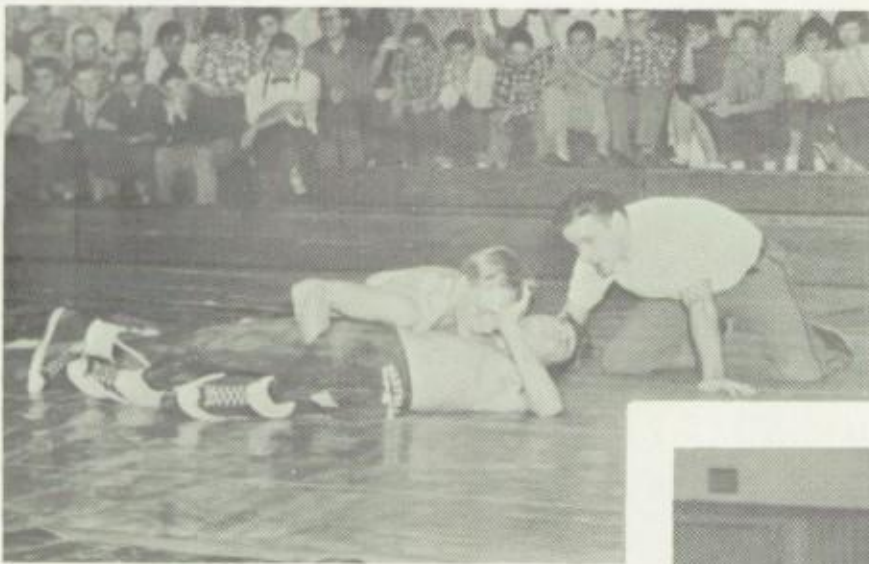

THE outlook for the 1955 baseball season looks promising. It appears that Coach Bernhard will be rebuilding the team with mostly new members, but we do have a few returning lettermen such as pitcher Tom Smith, catcher Art Sukman, and 3rd baseman, John Stein to carry on last year's record of winning nine out of twelve games.

Wrestling Team

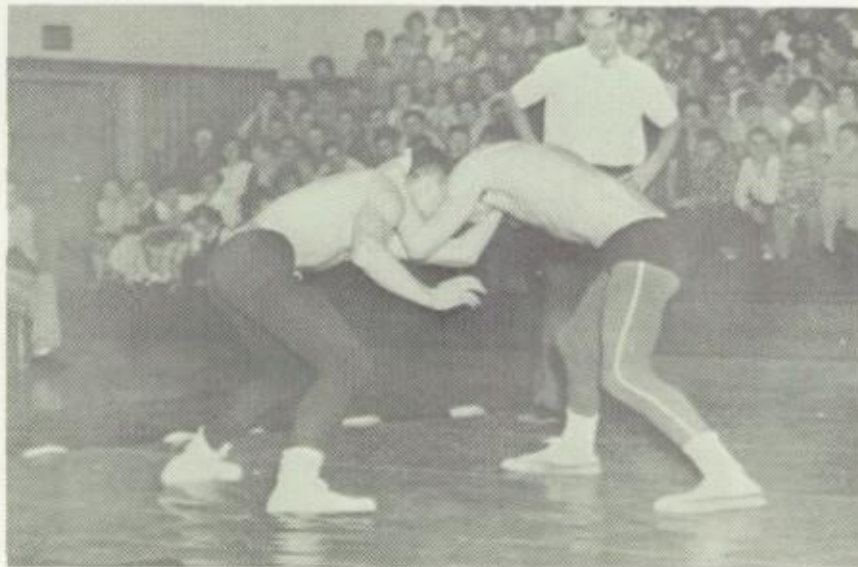

J. Zimmer, C. Klenberg, M. Zimmer, W. Noah, D. Buzzard, M. Weber, W. Price, W. Yamitz, D. Broker, M. Preg, G. Lyon.

A MORE recent sport at Clarence, wrestling, has had very successful teams under the conscientious coaching of Mr. Root.

On the team again, we have pint size Bill Price who was last year's sectional champ, along with veteran mat-men, Mike Zimmer, Walt Noah and Charles Kelkenburg. Many other newcomers have helped make it a very successful season.

Bowling Team

UNDER Mr. King, the bowling team had one of its best seasons. Backed by veterans Bob Kelly, Art Sukman, and also some good newcomers, Mr. King has some fine material with which to work. The boys had to compete with schools that were much larger, but they held their own!

Soccer

THE program of Junior High Soccer has worked very successfully. This year's team was coached by Mr. James, and performed well in their few scheduled games. It is hoped that within a few years, more of the schools in Erie County will fit a soccer team into their curriculum, so that there will be more competition.

ROW 1: J. Brooks, B. Troyer, L. Quenzler, J. Krier, D. Goehle, J. Kozlin. ROW 2: J. Baker, J. Householder, J. Shober, F. Granada, P. Huber, M. Ellis, H. Glidden. ROW 3: R. Anstett, L. Conrad, H. Glidden, D. Aldred, P. Lindner, R. Appleby, G. Lyon.

Golf Team

LED by many veterans from last year, the golf team should be able to achieve many victories. With a new coach, Mr. King, it is hoped that many low pars and long drives will provide a successful season.

Seated: T. Green, R. Kelly, D. Webster. Standing: E. Green, D. Stanley, D. Webster, Mr. King.

Tennis

THIS year's tennis team anticipates a good season, with almost the entire last year's team returning. This includes Al Cook and Neil Castren, winners of the Class A doubles sectionals, last year. The team finished with an even record in 1954, but won six out of their last seven matches for a whirlwind finish.

Seated: D. Anderson, J. Frank, M. Stern. Standing: A. Cook, N. Castren.

Swimming

THE swimming team this year, coached by Mr. James, was the youngest team in the school's history, since most of the members are freshmen. Returning from last year was David Williams, backstroke star, who rolled up an impressive record and Peter Rhodes, breaststroke man.

Showing real promise this year were freshmen "Bucky" Walters, diving ace; and Mike Gibson, free styler.

ROW 1: R. Booker, R. Rhodes, W. Kirsch, D. Brown, D. Williams, M. Gibson, P. Rhodes, L. Stahley. ROW 2: T. Clary, D. Smith, E. Green, B. Walters, L. Leland, B. Norris, C. Campbell, Mr. James.

ROW 1: J. Householder, W. Van Kuren, A. Duppengeisser, D. Long, M. Preg, J. Dorn. ROW 2: N. Schindler, M. Zimmer, D. Buzzard, J. Zimmerman, G. Westberg, A. Buzzard, P. Hoehman. ROW 3: P. Rhodes, J. Goodman, L. Stahley, J. Leighton, D. Van Kuren, D. Glor.

MR. ROOT, who is the coach of the track team, anticipates a successful season this year. Returning from last year are: Don Buzzard, Peter Rhodes, Paul Hoehman, Arnie Duppengeiser, Don Long, Jerry Zimmerman, Bill Long, Dick Van Kuren, Jim Goodman, and Mike Zimmer. The addition of rookies to these substantial veterans should make the team a leading contender.

MRS. BABICH, frequently called "Miss Mac" by all of us, has continued this year to capably lead girls' physical education activities. We appreciate her helpful advice and the time she spends on the annual water show.

The door of Mrs. Babich's office is always open to any girls who have problems; thus, a friendly and informal relationship is encouraged. Thanks, "Miss Mac," for all the fun, work, and good advice you've given us this year.

OUR newly formed club was organized by Mrs. Babich. The purpose of our club is to develop leadership, to learn to co-operate with other students and to assist Mrs. Babich in intramurals, swimming, and gym classes.

We assume the responsibilities such as squad leadership, checking lockers, showers, and towels and aiding Mrs. Babich in scheduling and organizing activities.

Water Ballet

SOFTLY colored lights, rhythmic music and precision swimming are characteristic of the Water Ballet which is presented annually by the Aquadettes. Many long hours of practice must take place before the water show is ready to be presented. Last year, selections such as "Ebb-Tide" and "The Little Red Monkey" were especially outstanding. The grand finale which featured candle lighting was very impressive. Not only have the Aquadettes found it fun to learn the style of synchronized swimming but they have enjoyed presenting their unique show in the Natatorium. Mrs. Babich is the director of the Water Ballet.
